

FEBRUARY 25, 1845.

Read, and committed to a Committee of the Whole House to-morrow.

Mr. THOMPSON, from the Committee of Claims, reported the following bill:

A BILL

For the relief of Samuel Perry, assignee of J. H. McClure & Co.

1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives
2 of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That
3 the Secretary of the Treasury be, and he is hereby, authorized
4 and directed to pay, out of any money in the treasury not other-
5 wise appropriated, to Samuel Perry, assignee of J. H. McClure
6 & Co., the sum of six hundred and thirty-eight dollars and nine-
10 ty-eight cents, it being the amount of freight deducted for the 11 loss caused by the sinking of a flat-boat freighted with Indian
12 supplies on account of the United States, while on its passage
13 from Cincinnati, in the State of Ohio, to Fort Coffee, upon the 14 Arkansas river.
